3 DAY VOLCANOES NP GORILLA TREK

Itinerary

DAY 1 Transfer to Volcanoes National Park

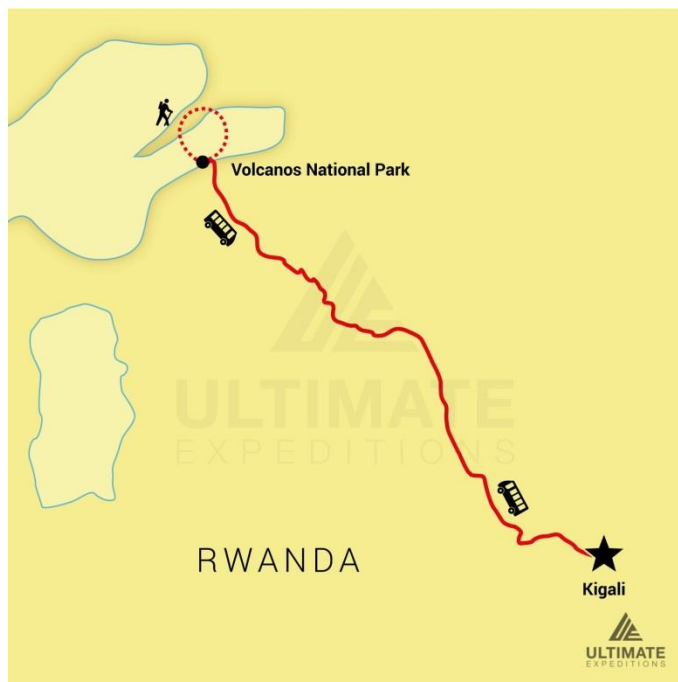

On arrival at Kigali International Airport, you will meet our safari guide representative. Then we head north to Ruhengeri, a city in northern Rwanda's Musanze district and serves as the base for gorilla trekking. The journey takes you through beautiful terraced hillsides that display Rwanda's natural landscape. At the lodge, you can stroll around the premises or simply take in the panoramic sunset over the volcanoes.

DAY 2 Gorilla Trekking

We head to the park headquarters for a briefing from the park rangers before setting off to the forest to see the gorillas. The ranger guides will take you through the forest to track gorillas, which can take from half an hour to five hours. A reasonable degree of fitness is required as well as a sturdy pair of walking shoes. If you have the afternoon free, you can visit Gisenyi, an orphanage, Lake Kiva/Bulera or a local school.

DAY 3 Depart to Kigali

After breakfast, drive to Kigali and have a city tour. In the afternoon transfer to the airport if applicable.

RWANDA

Best Time to Visit

Rwanda sits just a few degrees south of the equator and has a temperate tropical highland climate with lower temperatures, typical for equatorial countries due to its high elevation. There are some temperature variations across the country; the mountainous west and north are generally cooler than the lower-lying east.

The country experiences two rainy seasons a year, February to June rain is heavy and persistent. The shorter, less severe rainy season begins in September and lasts through December. The rainy seasons are separated by dry seasons, from June to September when the country often sees no rain at all. The shorter dry season is December to February. Rwanda offers good weather throughout the year, but when planning a visit the dry seasons are preferable and offer better wildlife viewing..

Temperature

Entry Requirements

Rwanda Visas are issued on arrival. US Citizens do not pay an entry fees. A passport valid for six months after date of entry is required. Visitors must hold return/onward tickets and all documents required for their next destination.

Vaccinations

Rwanda does not require proof of a valid Yellow Fever immunization certificate, but the country from which you came and are returning to, will ask. (Immigration officials might force a visitor to get immunized, which is at an extra cost). Hepatitis A and B, Tetanus, and Typhoid immunizations are recommended for all travelers. Malaria prophylaxis is recommended and you should consult your local doctor or physician to advise which malaria medication is best suited for you. Information on vaccinations and other health precautions, such as safe food and water precautions and insect bite protection, may be obtained from the CDC's Internet site at <http://www.cdc.gov/travel>.

Travel Advisories

Make two photocopies of valuables such as your passport, tickets, visas and travelers' cheques. Keep one copy with you in a separate place to the original and leave another copy with someone at home.

Be sure to inform your credit card company as well as your bank you will travel internationally into Africa. This will eliminate any credit card holds for fraudulent activity.

Currency

Carrying cash, an ATM or traveler's check card and also a credit card that can be used for cash advances in case of emergency is advisable. The best places to exchange money are normally bureau de change, which are fast, have longer hours and often give slightly better rates than banks. Local currency is Rwandan Francs (RWF), however most places accept USD. Better hotels, lodges, and camps will accept credit cards, however it is advised to withdraw cash when visiting remote areas and villages.

Government

Rwanda – is a presidential republic whereby the President of Rwanda is both head of state and head of government.

Religion

Rwanda – 56.5% of Rwanda's population is Roman Catholic, 26% is Protestant, 11.1% is Seventh-day Adventist, 4.6% is Muslim, 1.7% claims no religious affiliation, and 0.1% practices traditional indigenous beliefs.
